About me:

I hold a bachelor's degree in computer science, as well as a postgraduate degree in cyber security. With nearly 10 years of experience as a Java developer, I have honed my skills in Java 8, Angular 2+, and the Spring framework for over 5 years. My approach to work is proactive, evaluative, and strategic, and I firmly believe that organizational skills are crucial for achieving success. I excel in managing tasks efficiently and actively participate in meetings to discuss requirements with my team. Throughout my career, I have applied various techniques such as design patterns, code review, test-driven development (TDD), unit test coverage, and agile methodologies, which have consistently enabled me to deliver projects with exceptional quality.

I have a strong affinity for teamwork and effective communication. Sharing knowledge and collaborating with colleagues are vital steps towards achieving collective success. I find great satisfaction in mentoring and supporting new developers, helping them advance in their careers. Additionally, I hold the Scrum Foundations Professional Certificate (SFPC), recognizing the value of agile methodologies in enhancing development and delivery processes. Overall, I am passionate about delivering high-quality results, fostering teamwork, and continuously expanding my expertise in the field.
